ENROLLING IN SUMMER COURSES

→ When can I begin enrolling in summer courses?

- Visiting students: February 15, 2024 via the Summer Course Registration Form.

IMPORTANT NOTE: High school students must select from the approved course list for high school students.

→ What is the enrollment period?

- February 15 at 8:00am to the – Friday of Week 1 of the course's session: After above registration form has been completed, student will be sent instructions for enrolling through MyUCLA
- During Week 2 of the course's session: MyUCLA with PTE number OR Student Update Form with instructor signature or PTE number
- During Week 3 – Last day of the course: Student Update Form with instructor signature or PTE number
- After the course has ended: Non-UCLA students must submit a Student Update form with the instructor's approval signature to the Summer Sessions office to retroactively add a course.

PAYING FOR SUMMER COURSES

→ When is the payment deadline?

May 17, 2024 – Non-UC Students (If you enroll after the payment deadline, payment is due immediately)

→ What happens if I don't pay by the payment deadline?

You will be system dropped from ALL summer courses. You must maintain fully-paid status throughout all enrolled sessions. Delinquency in full payment for ALL enrollments may result in being dropped from all summer courses and/or holds without prior notice.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Autopay is not an option for the summer term and we do not offer payment plans.

→ Do you offer financial assistance for summer courses?

Visiting UC students: Eligible financial aid students from other University of California (UC) campuses may apply for financial aid at their home UC campus for summer study at UCLA. Please check with your home UC campus financial aid office for more information.

High School Students: A limited number of full and partial scholarships are available to qualified California* high school students for summer study at UCLA. Visit our Summer Scholars webpage for more information. UCLA financial aid is not available to visiting out-of-state high school students.

Visiting domestic or international college students and professionals: UCLA is unable to offer financial aid for domestic or international college students and professionals.

DROP & REFUND DEADLINES

The drop and refund deadlines are NOT the same for most summer courses. Therefore, it is possible to drop a course and still be held liable for the full cost of the course.

DROP DEADLINES	REFUND DEADLINES
Courses may not be dropped once the final exam, paper, or project is attempted or submitted.	Deadline depends on whether the course is impacted or non-impacted as well as duration.
Impacted Courses - Students have until Friday of Week 1 of the course's session to drop the course on MyUCLA. After Friday of Week 1, UCLA students must petition with our Summer Sessions office.	Impacted Courses & Summer Intensives (SIS) - Friday of Week 1 of the course's session. After Friday of Week 1, you are liable for full cost of the course.
Non-Impacted Courses - Students have until the end of the session to drop a non-impacted course. During the final two weeks of the course, students must submit a Summer Drop Request Form to UCLA Summer Sessions. After the session has ended, Non-UCLA students must petition with our Summer Sessions office.	Non-Impacted Courses – Friday of Week 2 of the course's session. After Friday of Week 2, you are liable for full cost of the course.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The $350 registration fee ($150 for UC students) is non-refundable at all times.
